

Bellingham Public Library Resources

1. go to www.bellinghampubliclibrary.org
2. Under 'Collections @ Your Library' click on 'Special Collections'
3. click on 'Adult Basic Education'

What is the Adult Basic Education Collection?

A small but growing collection of books, DVDs, CDs, and newspapers for adult English learners and teachers.

Where is the Adult Basic Education Collection?

We are located in the Bellingham Public Library, Central Library, 210 Central Avenue, Bellingham, Washington. The collection is located on the main floor in the back near the Teen Space.

The collection is available during library hours.

What is in the collection?

Stories written for all levels of adult English learners. Nonfiction titles written for all levels of adult English learners in a variety of subjects:

- Cars
- Citizenship
- Daily Living
- Dictionaries
- Grammar
- Health
- History
- Jobs
- Learning English
- Teaching English
- Math
- Money
- People
- Pre-GED
- Writing